

When selecting a global communications provider with whom to partner, it's important to find objective and reliable information. Sometimes, differentiating between marketing hype and factual information is difficult. Where do you turn when you want facts without the hype? Independent analyst groups and surveys provide the unbiased information you need and can help you to more objectively assess a company's products, services and reputation. Amongst our dozens of continual wins, we'd like to highlight a few key awards that reflect impartial opinions.

TELEMARK – BEST IN CLASS AMONG MANAGED DATA NETWORK SERVICES (MDNS) PROVIDERS, BENCHMARKING CUSTOMER'S SATISFACTION, FEBRUARY 2005 (ELEVENTH CONSECUTIVE AWARD)

BEST IN CLASS AMONG MANAGED IP SERVICE PROVIDERS, BENCHMARKING CUSTOMER'S SATISFACTION, DECEMBER 2004 (SECOND CONSECUTIVE AWARD)

Telemark, a leading telecommunications market intelligence firm specialising in gathering primary data, conducts quarterly independent surveys of multinational corporations (MNCs) to assess current levels of satisfaction with international network operators. February 2005 marks the eleventh consecutive time that their managed data network services (MDNS) customer benchmarking report recognised Infonet Services Corporation as “Best in Class”. This was preceded by “Best in Class” honors awarded to Infonet Services Corporation for the second consecutive time for managed

IP service providers. For both reports, Infonet Services Corporation exceeded the benchmark standard in all of the 32 attributes evaluated, and was found to be the most successful provider at meeting the needs of its multinational clients.

In the MDNS report, users surveyed ranked Infonet Services Corporation as the highest scoring operator in 10 categories including, Ability to Meet Customer's Requirements, Operational Guarantees, Third-Party Equipment Integration, Support in Local Language, International Installations, End-to-End Network Management, Bills in Currency of Choice and New Product and Service Information. Infonet Services Corporation also exceeded Telemark's statistically valid benchmark for all 32 categories.

Amongst managed IP service providers, besides again overall "Best in Class", Infonet Services Corporation received ten individual category "Best in Class" honors: "Network Reliability", "Secure Data Transfer", "Installation on Schedule", "Operational Guarantees", "Help-desk Provisions", "Ability to Meet Customer Requirements", "Understanding Customer Requirements", "No Hidden Extras in Bills", "Installation Not Disrupting" and "Long Term Relationship".

WORLD COMMUNICATION AWARDS – "BEST CUSTOMER CARE", "BEST CARRIER" 2000 AND "BEST CARRIER EMEA" 2002

Co-organized by Total Telecom and the European Competitive Telecommunications Association (ECTA), the WCA is the premier global awards event for the communications industry. The panel of judges, made up of key opinion leaders within the communications industry, voted Infonet Services Corporation's MobileXpress™ mobile/ wireless service as "Best Regional Carrier" and "Best Managed Service". In addition to the two award wins, Infonet Services Corporation was one of five finalists for "Best Global Carrier", and MobileXpress was named a finalist for "Best New Service". Infonet Services Corporation's flagship multi-class MPLS-enabled IP VPN service, IP VPN Secure, was also named a finalist for "Best Managed Service". While Infonet Services Corporation's range of data communications services capabilities exceeds that of a typical 'carrier', its performance as a preferred global solutions provider to multinational organisations is reflected in past World Communication Awards. Infonet Services Corporation was a finalist in "Best Global Carrier", "Best Customer Care" and "Best Managed Service" in 2003; winner of "Best Carrier EMEA" in 2002; and winner of "Best Customer Care", and "Best Carrier" in 2000.
